Seasons Change
Historical Society Celebrates Fall
 By Robert Chiarito

If the trees are a blaze of red, gold and orange and the temperature is starting to get a bit nippy it can only mean that autumn is upon us. In celebration of the change of season that dresses New England in its most colorful best, the Mattapoissett Historical Society held a Fall Celebration on Sunday, October 15 at the Mattapoissett Historical Museum and Carriage House.

The day started with a round of pumpkin-carving that saw parents and their children hollowing out the big orange gourds to create Jack-o'-Lanterns for their windows and doorsteps. Some of the kids, in anticipation of Halloween, came dressed in their costumes. In the tradition of a harvest celebration, pumpkins carvers were given tips on how they could prepare the pumpkin seeds to make a "yummy treat" by cleaning the seeds and then toasting them in the oven.

The troupe stopped by the school and the New Bedford Whaling Museum last week as part of a program co-sponsored by the New Bedford ECHO Project (Education through Cultural and Historical Organizations) and the Mattapoissett Parents-Teachers Organization (PTO). The free performance was part of a Kahurangi Theatre in Education presentation celebrating both Maori and Pacific culture. (Photo by Kenneth J. Souza).

Along with the pumpkin carving there were plenty of activities and demonstrations showing some of the many uses of the apple. Apples were being crushed, peeled and boiled to make a variety of refreshments. Children were shown how to use old-fashioned peeling machines that skinned an apple in one long strand. Apples were put into a recreation of an antique apple press that was used to extract the juice to make delicious fresh cider.

The 75-acre conservation area is now open for public use with walking trails that abut historic stone walls encasing some of the most scenic fields, woods, and ponds in the tri-town area. The Grand Opening drew over 200 participants who came to celebrate the event. (Photo by Nancy MacKenzie).

"There's nothing modern or fancy to our set up," Eloise Ricardelli said. "It is all very primitive." The pulp from the crushed apples was then taken and made into applesauce. Another type of apple, the hedge apple, was given to any one who wanted one to be taken home and used as a traditional deterrent to ward off spiders and insects.

After a big devil's food cake dressed in orange Halloween frosting was eaten, the day's activities continued with fathers and sons passing a football as other families put the finishing touches on their pumpkins. Members of the Historical Society shared ghost stories and offered children the chance to take part in a quilt-making circle.

As an added bonus, the Mattapoisett Museum of History was open free to the public. Many of the people in attendance took advantage of the opportunity to comb over many of the artifacts and relics of Mattapoisett's rich past. As visitors walked through the museum they were afforded the chance to make a connection between the activities on the lawn and the displays inside. Many of the tools and implements used through out the day were based on the traditional tools from the museum's archives.

As the day was coming to a close, another New England tradition was demonstrated to the children as the adults showed them the value of contributing a bit of elbow grease as every one pitched in to clean up. "Isn't area to enjoy the walking trails that abut historic stone walls encasing some of the most scenic fields, woods, and ponds in the tri-town area. Last Saturday's Grand Opening drew over 200 participants who came to celebrate the event. Attendees enjoyed hot apple cider, pumpkin soup, apple crisp and ice cream and participated in walking tours around the new conservation area.

Steve Sloan, the Southeast Regional Director of the Trustees of Reservations, said the turnout was far better than he hoped. "The town was very invested in the property," he said, explaining the enthusiastic response to the Grand Opening.

Rochester resident Connie Eshbach enjoyed the historical walking tour with her husband. Ms. Eshbach is related to the Hartley family, who once owned the Hartley Mill. She said she is a member of the Trustees — a general membership to the organization costs $45 — and that she was excited that this piece of land will never be developed. "Rochester is one of the few small towns around that has stayed the same," she said. The purchase of this section of East Over Farm ensures that the land will always be available for community use.

The entrance to East Over is located off of Clapp Road. There is a large bulletin board in the parking area containing guest booklets, trail maps, and event flyers. East Over also features a self-guided treasure hunt called East Over Quest. This is a great hike for kids — the directions to the quest are written in rhyming poetry that Edie Dondero is the planner for the site. She said the Trustees of Reservations invest in properties that have ecological, historical, and scenic significance. She referred to East Over Farm as "the scenic gem of the region." The Trustees also purchased 300 acres in Marion that will be open for public access in a year or two, she said.

The trail at East Over begins at the Clapp Road parking lot and winds through the meadows down Mary's Pond Road and onto Hiller Road. There is also a trail that meanders through the woods along Walnut Plain Road.

Walkers and runners are welcome on the property, but bikes or horses are not allowed. Cross country skiing will be allowed during winter months. Dog owners are welcome to bring pets on leashes. Picnicking is also allowed, but prepare to take trash out as no garbage pails are on-site.

The walk takes about 45 minutes to complete, but can easily be extended by doubling back on paths or heading down to Leonard's Pond on an available trail easement.

For more information about the walking trail or how to become a member of The Trustees of Reservations, please visit www.the.trustees.org. The mission statement of the organization is "To preserve, for public use

Dancing Culture

New Zealand Troupe in Mattapoisett

By Kenneth J. Souza

Friday, October 13 ended up being a lucky day for elementary school students in Mattapoisett as they were treated to a unique performance of traditional song and dance performed by the Kahurangi Maori Dance Company of New Zealand. This one-of-a-kind troupe stopped by Old Hammondtown School on their way to another performance slated for the New Bedford Whaling Museum the following evening.

Co-sponsored by the New Bedford ECHO Project (Education through Cultural and Historical Organizations) and the Mattapoisett Parents-Teachers Organization (PTO), the free performance was part of a Kahurangi Theatre in Education presentation which celebrates both Maori and Pacific culture and promotes cultural understanding.

Students sat mesmerized by the performance held in the auditorium of Old Hammondtown School while the dance troupe ran through different routines representing different cultures and locations where the Maori people migrated and settled. Beginning with their ancestral homeland of Hawaiki (Hawaii), they traveled through the Polynesian Islands and eventually ended up in New Zealand, near Australia. This educational program, titled "People of the Pacific," recounts the history and migration of the Maori people using songs and dances from Tahiti, Hawaii, Samoa and New Zealand.

Among the more familiar dance routines performed was the Hawaiian hula, which students readily recognized as the traditional dance of America's fiftieth state.

"The appearance of the Kahurangi troupe represents the New Bedford ECHO Project's efforts to enrich the cultural connections borne of traditional whaling and trading ties," said Anne Brengle, President of the New Bedford Whaling Museum. "The whaleships that set sail from New Bedford in the 19th century typically stopped at islands in the South Pacific to procure provisions. This exciting performance not only opens a window into a

"As you know, the town is getting ready to celebrate its 150th anniversary," Selectman Steve Lombard said. "These are items that couldn't wait for the May (Annual) Town Meeting. We are taking this out of the Stabilization Fund and we plan to put these funds back into the Stabilization Fund at the May Town Meeting."

When asked why this work didn't fall under the town's newly-appointed Capital Planning Committee, Selectman Lombard explained these repairs were more of a maintenance issue and wouldn't fall under their purview.

ARTICLE 1 passed, 58 to 2.

Under ARTICLE 2, voters were asked to transfer $66,325 from the Stabilization Fund to make extraordinary repairs to the Heating, Ventilation and Air Conditioning (HVAC) system at Old Hammondtown School.

ARTICLE 2 passed unanimously, 60 to 0.

Under ARTICLE 3, voters were asked to transfer $132,000 from the Stabilization Fund to pay bills from of a prior fiscal year under the Mattapoisett School Committee budget to cover transportation costs of students in Grades 7-12. According to Mattapoisett School Committee Chairman Elizabeth Milde, this additional expense was due to the rebidding of contracts for bus services in Mattapoisett's elementary schools.

tion costs," Ms. Milde said. "This stems back to the Town Meeting of 2005. When it came down to the bottom line, (this expense) was overlooked and ... not captured in the budget. It fell between two different School Committees. Rochester got it right, but Marion also missed it ... like we did."

According to Ms. Milde, this money would be borrowed from the Stabilization Fund to cover the outstanding bills with the intent of returning it at the Annual Town Meeting.

ARTICLE 3 passed unanimously, 52 to 0.

Under ARTICLE 4, voters were asked to appropriate $156,000 to be added to the FY 2007 Budget as approved by the Annual Town Meeting of May 8-11, 2006 to cover the Elementary Schools' Special Education (SPED) budget.

"This does ask you to approve an increase in the SPED budget," Ms. Milde said. "But it does fall within the (Proposition) 2-1/2 levy limit. Last spring we developed a budget in good faith and you approved it ... in June, we saw some unanticipated SPED costs ... to cover tuition and transportation for out-of-district (student placements)."

"What happened to all the additional state aid (we received) back around the Annual Town Meeting?" asked resident Daniel Goodman.

"Most of the additional state aid discussed at the Annual Town Meeting was earmarked for Old Rochester

ARTICLE 4 passed, 65 to 1.

Under ARTICLE 5, voters were asked to allocate $194,454 to be added to the FY 2007 Budget as approved by the Annual Town Meeting of May 8-11, 2006, to cover additional transportation costs for the Mattapoisett Elementary Schools.

"This will balance out the transportation costs ... and provide the proper revenue for the next school budget," Ms. Milde said, noting this is an attempt to ensure transportation costs are not overlooked in future budget estimates.

Under ARTICLE 6, voters were asked to appropriate $22,000 to be added to the FY 2007 Budget as approved by the Annual Town Meeting of May 8-11, 2006, to cover additional Highway Department expenses.

"This budget was put together last winter," Highway Surveyor Barry Denham said. "The recommendation was the department budgets only be increased by five percent. The Highway Department was only increased by (less than 1 percent) ... which shorted our payroll, equipment repair, and diesel fuel accounts. The $22,000 will put money back into (those line items) and give us some more money in our maintenance account."

The Finance Committee (FinCom), however, did not recommend placing this money on the tax levy limit at the present time.

"The state now allows us to transfer unused money (from one department to another) to cover unanticipated costs," said FinCom Chairman Paul Silva. "We feel it is premature to raise taxes for $22,000 and we feel money will be available during the fiscal year ... to cover this shortfall. We're confident we'll have the money in May to meet this (shortfall)."

"This budget was seriously underfunded at the (Annual) Town Meeting," Selectman Lombard countered. "The law that (Mr. Silva) alludes to allows you to make transfers in May and June. But the Board of Selectmen supports this article and you can see the Highway Department is getting a lot of work done around town. We don't know what the winter months will bring as far as snow and ice removal and we might need those additional funds."

Selectman Collyer echoed his fellow board member's sentiments, advising that with an already aging fleet of vehicles, the chances of Mr. Denham needing to perform additional maintenance work in the winter months is quite high.

With that, ARTICLE 6 passed, 39 to 24.

Under ARTICLE 7, voters were asked to transfer $62,228 from the Water Enterprise Fund to be added to the FY 2007 Budget as approved by the Annual Town Meeting of May 8-11, 2006, for Water Enterprise Fund expenses.

Town Administrator Michael Botelho described Articles 7 and 8 and purely "book-keeping measures" to cover funding for work being done by the Mattapoissett River Valley Regional Water District that was already sanctioned by Town Meeting.

"This represents the town's share of the borrowing for the treatment plant facility for the (Water District)," Mr. Botelho explained.

ARTICLE 7 passed unanimously, 63 to 0.

Under ARTICLE 8, voters were similarly asked to transfer $5,402 from revenues of the Sewer Enterprise Fund to be added to the FY 2007 Budget as approved by the Annual Town Meeting of May 8-11, 2006, to cover the principle on a bond for Phase I of the regional sewer project.

Marion Selectmen's Meeting

October 17, 2006

By Eletha M. Yeaton

A regular meeting of the Marion Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, October 17 at 7:00 pm by Vice Chairman Jonathan Henry. Also present were Selectman Roger Blanchette, Interim Town Administrator Julia Enroth-Whitlock, and Secretary Helene Craver.

Animal Advice Jay Gould, DVM

RABIES

My neighbor and I were talking about our indoor cats. When I asked who her vet was she said that she had never taken her cat to the vet. She said that the cat needed no shots because it never went outside. Is this correct?

Unfortunately, no, this is neither correct nor a rare opinion. Indoor cats need vet care as much as outdoor cats. Vaccination for Rabies are a legal requirement as well as a good idea, at the very least. Rabid raccoons are common and do get into houses and indoor only cats sometimes end up outdoors. Thus, the cats' health and the health of the family may be endangered.

Your neighbor is also thinking of vets as emergency personnel. Much of our job is to prevent illness and suffering. Animal visits are geared towards making sure that the pet is indeed happy and comfortable. Dental disease, and the pain that goes with it, obesity and other problems are extremely common in indoor only cats.

General Laws (MGL), Chapter 40B, sections 20-23. This one-page procedure outline will clarify the process for developers and assist the Board of Selectmen in the application process. The procedure was approved by the board.

Approved the recommendation of Town Counsel, upon advice from the Attorney General, to award the contract for the Benson Brook water main to the second lowest and competent bidder.

Approved the request, contingent upon approval of the emergency services, of the Marion Business Community Association (MBCA) to approve the plans for the Twelfth Annual Christmas Stroll for Sunday, December 10, 2006 from 3:00 pm to 6:00 pm and the closure of the usual streets.

Town Administrator Julia Enroth-Whitlock reported that she had researched the Sippican Lands Trust Conservation Restriction request, and they indicated that they would be pleased if the town would declare the easement on abutting Lot 23, Map 24 as conservation easement.

Furthermore, she asked for the board to sign the Water Bond indicating that it was for the Town of Marion.

Another item she presented was the Littleneck Village Request for Proposals (RFP) for Improvement and Expansion Conceptual Plans. One paragraph of this plan was changed by Town Counsel. The revised plan has been submitted to the Chairman, and he has asked the members of the Housing Trust to indicate their approval by next Monday. Ms. Enroth-Whitlock advised the board that if they wished to move forward on this before the next Selectmen's meeting, they could approve the plans subject to the approval of the Housing Trust. The board decided to wait until the meeting at 6:30 pm on Monday, October 30, 2006 just prior to the Special Town Meeting to approve the final draft of the plan.

The final item on the Town Administrator's agenda was a Community Drug and Alcohol Survey from ORR in connection with the local and district School Committees to focus on the need to increase drug and alcohol awareness. Upon consultation with the School Committee, she advised the board members that they could fill out the survey themselves or give it to someone they felt

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting

October 16, 2006

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, October 16 at 6:50 pm by Chairman Bradford N. Morse. Also present were Selectman Richard Nunes, Selectman Dan A. McGaffey, and Administrative Assistant Veronica Lafreniere. Town Administrator James Huntoon was not present for the meeting.

The board first approved the minutes of the October 2 meeting, then signed and approved the warrant calling for the November 7 State Election, and also appointed Democratic Election workers to work the polls on that date.

Under incoming correspondence, the board received notification from the Annie Maxim House, Inc. of their annual donations to various town departments in the following amounts: $250 to the Council on Aging (COA); $500 to the Highway Department; $500 to the Fire Department; $500 to the Ambulance Fund; and $1,000 to the Rochester Police Department. The board asked that a letter of appreciation be sent to the Annie Maxim House for their generous gifts.

The Mattapoisett/Rochester Veterans Council also sent notification of their meeting held on October 5 to discuss the Conflict of Interest/Multiple Office Holding issue with regard to current Veterans Agent Barry J. Denham, who also serves as Mattapoisett's elected Highway Surveyor. The council unanimously voted during this meeting to recommend that the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen exempt Mr. Denham under Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 268A, Section B, thereby allowing him to hold both positions.

ATTENTION DRIVERS

If you are involved in a collision you have the right to have your investment, your vehicle, repaired at a shop of your choice. Your insurance company may suggest a list of repair shops. Do not be persuaded by this list, it is not a guarantee of quality of services, nor does it limit your options. You want a shop who will work for you and with you to put your vehicle back to pre-accident condition. COLLISION SERVICES OF MARION, INC. is a licensed, bonded, registered repair shop with the state of Massachusetts. We work with all insurance companies to expedite your repairs. The important thing to remember is we repair the vehicle for you, our customers, not the insurance companies. So remember, if the need arises, contact COLLISION SERVICES OF MARION, INC. to get back on the road.

At 7:00 pm the board met with Susan Peterson, the board's representative to the Southeast Regional Planning and Economic Development District (SRPEDD), advising that SRPEDD is once again offering 20 hours of clerical service to the board to have "any type of research (you) need done," she said. SRPEDD is also allocating 20 hours of similar service to the Rochester Planning Board and Town Planner Randall Kunz.

Ms. Peterson suggested the board might use these hours to research potential Chapter 40B development projects. Selectman McGaffey also mentioned the possibility of using the hours to develop and update the town's Master Plan.

"(The hours) have to be committed by the end of the year," Ms. Peterson said. "Last year (Rochester) only used 30 of the 40."

The board agreed to contact SRPEDD as to how they can best use these hours.

At 7:05 pm the board met with Patrick O'Neill of Tater & Howard Associates along with Fred Underhill, the board's representative to the Mattapoisett River Valley Water District, to update them on the district's progress in constructing a water treatment facility in Mattapoisett and related water lines.

Mr. O'Neill said construction of the treatment plant is currently ready to begin for the Tinkham Lane site in Mattapoisett and they are also working on installing some 950 feet of 12-inch water main to both transport the raw water from wells off Wolf Island Road in Rochester to the treatment plant and then distribute the treated water back to Mattapoisett residents. The project costs are to be jointly borne by the water users and a partial state reimbursement.

"I'm just here tonight to get your approval on construction," Mr. O'Neill said. "We have CC Construction ready to begin work ... next week. The plan is to begin at Tinkham Lane ... (through) November 15 and then move on to Wolf Island Road."

"I think it's going along very well," Mr. Underhill added. "My only (concern) is because of the 1971 agreement with (the Town of Marion), you need to revisit the agreement to make sure both boards approve (the work). I think somewhere along the way there should be some agreement between the two towns in writing saying both boards approved it. The original 1971 agreement calls for it."

With that, the board unanimously voted to allow the project to proceed as described, pending clarification on the existing towns' water agreement from both Rochester Town Counsel Blair Bailey and Marion Town Counsel Jon Witten.

At 7:12 pm the board opened the annual Tax Classification Hearing with the Board of Assessors.

According to Assessor John Mello, the hearing is called yearly for the Assessors to recommend whether to maintain a single or split-level tax rate and to determine the amount of the town's excess levy limit in order to establish the tax rate for Fiscal Year 2007.

"It's our recommendation that you continue with a single, unified residential and commercial tax rate," Mr. Mello said. "With respect to the excess levy limit, we are proposing to meet with you (just after) the Special Town Meeting on Wednesday, November 1 at 6:30 pm."

Mr. Mello said they are still awaiting data from the Massachusetts Department of Revenue (DOR) to calculate those final numbers.

With that, the board unanimously voted to maintain a single, unified tax rate for both residential and commercial property upon the Assessors' recommendation and also agreed to meet with the Board of Assessors again

Chairman Morse said they would table discussion of road names for Trailside Estates to their next meeting.

This year's program will consist of approximately 16 weekly sessions. The registration fee is $295 for the entire season, payable to "Hockey Unlimited" in advance. The money covers ice rental expenses and all other operating costs.

Each participant should complete a registration form and return it with a check made payable to "Hockey Unlimited" to: Hockey Unlimited, c/o Dyer Capital Management, P.O. Box 388, Marion, MA 02738. Sessions are scheduled to be held primarily on Saturday mornings, as well as other select school vacation days. The program runs approximately from November through March 3, 2007. A complete schedule with exact dates and times will be available upon registration. Because of program limitations, registration is on a first-come, first-served basis.

Each player must be equipped with a hockey stick, knee pads, hockey gloves, elbow pads, helmet and face guard. Some type of tooth protection and hockey pants are also strongly recommended. teams from both Rhode Island and Massachusetts while advancing to the finals of the U-12 Division in the Fifth Annual Cape Cod Harvest Cup Soccer Tournament held in Barnstable over Columbus Day weekend. The Comets were led by forwards Emma Morehead and Tori Vargas, who provided much of the team's scoring throughout the tournament. Goalkeepers Alexandria Gordon and Allison Francis were supported by strong defensive play from Amanda Bergquist, Meghan Dineen, Katelyn Cummings, Katie Wilbur, Jesley Teixeira and Nina Resmini to help the Comets squad, which gave up only 1 goal and posted two shutout victories during 3 matches of round-robin play on Saturday and Sunday.

In Monday's semi-final match, the Mariner Comets faced the Mariner Soccer Club's U-11 Girls Premier Team, which also advanced to the semi-finals with a solid showing in the round-robin matches by winning 2 matches with only 2 goals allowed. Prior to the semi-final match, the U-11 Girls played very well against an older Nor'Easter Stingers U-12 Girls Premier team, losing by a very tight 1-0 margin. In the semi-final match between the Mariner teams, the Mariner U-11 Girls took an early 1-0 lead in the first half with a goal from Nicole Simas. The Mariner Comets answered with a goal of their own from Hannah Walsh off a beautiful cross from Tori Vargas. The match was tied 2-2 at the half after two more goals were scored by the Erin Gallagher, of the U-11 Girls, and the Comets' Emma Morehead. The Comets pulled away in convincing fashion during the second half, with Comets' midfielder Mackenzie Martin scoring two goals to seal a 7-2 victory.

The Mariner Comets advanced to face the Nor'easter Stingers U-12 Girls Premier team in the Final Match. The Stingers scored early off a corner kick before Emma Morehead tied the match for the Comets on a penalty kick. The Comets were supported throughout the match by strong midfield play from Kayli Berche, Nora Saunders, Hannah Bouvette and Jennifer Galavotti. The Stingers scored a late second half penalty kick to seal a 3-1 victory over the Comets to win the tournament.

In addition to the strong showing from both the Comets and the U-11 Girls Premier Team, Mariner was also well represented in the U-13 Girls Division, where the U-13 Girls Premier Team advanced to the semi-finals against tough Premier team competition from Connecticut. The Mariner U-13 girls went undefeated over the weekend with 2 wins and a tie. In Monday's semi-final match they were once again matched up against the Simsbury (CT), Starz, who they had tied on Saturday. The semi-final match ended in a 2-2 tie, before the Mariner squad lost on a golden goal during overtime.

To the Editor:

The Marion Tree Committee is very pleased and proud to have planted some significant new trees along Route 6 in Marion. With the generous help from the Sippican Historical Society, we were able to enhance the look of Route 6 with 22 new trees this fall. Steve Gonsalves from Eden Landscapes and Tim Crowley of Crowley Landscape shared in the planting, and the Marion Department of Public Works (DPW) fills the green watering bags every week. All the businesses along Route 6, except for one, gave permission and were very pleased to receive this generous green gift from the Historical Society. On behalf of the

Drug and Alcohol Survey

As you may know, the Marion, Mattapoisett, Rochester, and Old Rochester Regional District School Committees have been focused on the need to increase drug and alcohol awareness in the tri-town area for quite some time. School-based activities in support of this are curriculum changes and in-school and after-school events. Some of the events have been recorded and replayed on the local public access cable channel as well.

The most recent and aggressive approach to this issue is the development of a Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) chapter in the tri-town area. This major initiative is being led by the Old Rochester Regional Parents Association (ORRPA), and they have the support of local safety and health officials. It is their intent that each tri-town local parent organization will also take a key role throughout the process. A critical element in the implementation is community involvement. This cannot be just a school-based program.

The next step in the process is for a community survey to be completed. The survey is designed to understand the mindset of our community concerning the existence of drug and alcohol issues. The completion of this survey is a vital element in the process as it will provide directional information to community awareness. Having

Uncovering Ours Body's Miracles through Chiropractic Care at Marion Family Chiropractic

The history of chiropractic is not what you would expect.

In 1895, a man named Harvey Lillard was deaf. DD Palmer, the Founder of Chiropractic, examined him and discovered a vertebra out of alignment. He adjusted it into place. Immediately, Harvey Lillard's hearing returned.

DD Palmer thought he had discovered the cure for deafness. Hearing impaired people came to Davenport to restore their hearing.

Not everyone who had their spine adjusted had their hearing return, but many experienced other benefits: heart problems improved, headaches disappeared, or people slept better at night.

Rather than being merely a cure for deafness, DD Palmer discovered that chiropractic adjustments were freeing the nervous system from interference. With the communication channels of the nervous system open, the body became free to heal itself.

Today's chiropractors, like those over 100 years ago, continue to have a profound respect for the innate healing ability of the body.

Do we still see "miracles" like Harvey Lillard's in today's chiropractic offices? Listen to what some of the people who have visited Marion Family Chiropractic have discovered:

- ☐ A nurse decreases her anxiety
- ☐ A mechanic can do his work free of back pain
- ☐ 30 years of sciatica disappear for a receptionist
- ☐ A child reverses her asthma
- ☐ A waitress's neck and arm no longer hurt
- ☐ A teenager focuses better
- ☐ A manager with pain between his shoulder blades and heartburn is now medication free
- ☐ A young mother's years of headaches are gone
- ☐ A woman's vertigo resolves immediately

watershed will be permanently protected from development thanks to $2.4 million granted to the Coalition for Buzzards Bay (CBB) and a host of partners including the Trustees of Reservations, the Wareham Land Trust, the Dartmouth Natural Resources Trust, and The Nature Conservancy by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service's North American Wetlands Conservation Act (NAWCA) Program. The funds will be used to underwrite four land acquisitions and a number of salt marsh restoration projects in Bourne, Dartmouth, Falmouth, Mattapoissett, Plymouth, Wareham and Tiverton, RI.

The $2.4 million granted in this latest round of NAWCA awards represents the remainder of the Bouchard Oil Spill penalty money that was earmarked in 2004 for migratory bird habitat protection in Buzzards Bay as a result of the company's negligence which caused the April 2003 oil spill. The CBB and 25 local, state, and national partners have now secured the entire $6.7 million in NAWCA funds set aside under that penalty to help protect 1150 acres of coastal lands. Previous awards include $2.3 million in December 2004 to protect 285 acres in Westport, Fairhaven, and Mattapoissett, and in July 2005, the partnership secured $2 million to help protect another 223 acres in the three Bay towns.

The four Buzzards Bay projects funded in this round were among just 26 approved nationwide by the USFWS at a September 13 meeting. "These funds will enable us to continue to work with our watershed partners to protect sensitive habitats critical to limiting further water quality degradation in the bay," said CBB Land Protection Director, Allen Decker. "The NAWCA grants will also help us to expand our efforts to restore salt marsh that is vital to the Bay's wildlife and migratory birds."

The Coalition will administer and coordinate the grants and work with project partners by making funds available for use and providing regular progress and financial updates to NAWCA.

Specifically, the NAWCA funds will be used to protect two properties in Dartmouth: $950,000 will help to acquire a conservation restriction on 153 acres of salt marsh and forested wetland habitat associated with Dike Creek, a tributary of Apponagansett Bay, another $300,000 will help the Dartmouth Natural Resources Trust (DNRT) protect 86 acres of salt marsh and adjacent land and uplands along the Slocums River.

Protecting the Dike Creek property has long been a priority of the CBB and its partner, the Trustees of Reservation (TTOR). "Thanks to a group effort and funding support through the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, what began as a great conservation idea will now become a tremendous conservation success," said Anthony Cucchi, TTOR Land Protection Specialist. "Local supporters have spent years trying to save the property and it now appears that our persistence is finally paying off."

Commenting on the Slocums River Project, Dartmouth Natural Resources Trust Executive Director Dexter Mead added, "This grant will help preserve the most significant unprotected property on the Slocums River. With more than 900 acres of land along its shores already protected, the Slocums River provides excellent coastal river habitat by the side of Buzzards Bay for many species of waterfowl and other wildlife."

In addition to the Dartmouth projects, $800,000 of the NAWCA funds will help to protect more than 150 acres of wetlands in Falmouth, Bourne, Wareham, Mattapoisett and Wareham/Plymouth, including the restoration of 90 acres of salt marsh habitat in Falmouth, Bourne, Mattapoisett, and Wareham. "The Wareham Land Trust is happy to be part of the effort to protect the quality of our bay and are especially thankful to be able to participate with the CBB in the NAWCA program," said Jim Munise, President of the Wareham Land Trust. "The habitat we are protecting with the help of this funding has a mile of river frontage along the Agawam River, 68 acres of pine barren habitat and sits over part of the Water Districts Zone II Drinking Water Aquifer."

The remaining $300,000 of the grant will help The Nature Conservancy protect 230 acres at Tiverton Great Swamp, Rhode Island. Located on the western boundary of the Buzzards Bay watershed, this pristine wetland tract contributes the single greatest source of freshwater, via Adamsville Brook, to the West Branch of the Westport River. The NAWCA grant will protect critical forested wetland habitat and associated uplands for migrating

Peek-a-Boo

By Rob Gonsalves
www.robsmovievault.com

The Grudge 2. Starring Amber Tamblyn and Sarah Michelle Gellar. Directed by Takashi Shimizu. Running time: 95 minutes. MPA rating: PG-13.

Give credit where credit is due: The Grudge 2 is surely the strangest and most incomprehensible film to open on 3,000-plus American screens in quite some time. It's also one of the most boring. 2004's The Grudge — itself a remake of the popular Japanese TV/movie series Ju-On — cost $10 million and wound up making it back eleven times over, so of course a sequel was inevitable. But couldn't the returning filmmakers (director Takashi Shimizu and writer Stephen Susco) have injected some fun into the proceedings? Like its predecessor, The Grudge 2 offers nary an intentional laugh, unless you count a weird bit of business involving a monk on a bus doing some sort of peek-a-boo with his hands.

But then the whole movie is peek-a-boo — it's the same EEK! moments with the odd-looking, wide-mouthed Japanese ghost boy and the staggering, long-haired Japanese ghost woman (seriously, what is with Asian horror and long black hair?). As before, the psychic residue of rage inflicts itself on innocent mortals who have the misfortune to enter what Stephen King once called a Bad Place — a house with a violent past. I get what these movies are trying to do, and I even appreciate that they go about it in an elliptical, spiritual way. But they still don't do anything for me. I'm ghosted out, I think, and I've also seen every trick Shimizu has up his sleeve. These films are popular with teenagers who haven't seen it all before, who don't see every jump scare coming a mile off.

If you're thinking of seeing this because you're a Sarah Michelle Gellar fan, you'd better also be a Sarah Michelle Gellar completist, because she appears here for maybe five minutes all told. Her character from the 2004 remake, Karen Davis, is in a Tokyo hospital; her sister Aubrey (Amber Tamblyn) is charged with bringing her home to the states. The puffy and troubled-looking Amber Tamblyn, late of Joan of Arcadia (she was also in the Ring remake), is a more interesting actress than the material here allows her to show. She mostly goes from place to place, finding corpses (and she's the second person in two weeks, following Leonardo DiCaprio in last weekend's The Departed, to witness someone fall from a great height and land at their feet).

In a subplot, integrated none too adeptly into the plot, Jennifer Beals plays a (possibly unfaithful) new wife dealing with her new stepchildren.

MOVIE REVIEW

Where this leads is no great surprise, since the movie opens with it and then flits back in time. But we know and care nothing about Beals or her new family, and the subplot isn't given enough time or space to develop. The supernatural Japanese rage somehow finds its way to Chicago and this American family, for reasons we have to slog to the end to find out. There's also a haunted American girl going to school in Tokyo, along with a bunch of other American kids who learn very basic kanji and whose presence in the film is baffling. It's possible that enough American businesspeople work in Japan to justify showing a classroom of American kids in Tokyo (though no mention is made of this), but one suspects the real reason is that the studio thought American teenagers needed American kids to identify with.

I was hardly a fan of the first Grudge, but I've got the DVD behind-the-scenes documentary playing in the background as I write this, and every now and then I look up and see an arresting image. And people like Sam Raimi are talking about what a master filmmaker Takashi Shimizu is. He may well be — I haven't seen all his work — but I wouldn't build that argument on The Grudge 2. Shimizu simply repeats himself here, right down to the freaky shower incident (and, as before, the PG-13 rating means a bitter disappointment for teenage boys — or teenage lesbians — hoping to see more than bare feet and shoulders). The filmmaking is uninspired and lazy, as if Shimizu, having danced the Ju-On/Grudge dance six times now (and a Ju-On 3 has been announced), were tired of dancing. He just shuffles through, setting up the expected scares for the Saturday-night teenagers. Maybe he harbors a grudge against the same success that has now trapped him into doing the same screeching kid and the same dark-haired ghost over and over.

SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You're moving from a relatively stable situation to one that appears to be laced with perplexity. Be patient. You'll eventually get answers to help clear up the confusion around you.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A vexing situation tempts you to rush to set it all straight. But it's best to let things sort themselves out so that you can get a better picture of the challenge you're facing.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Financial matters could create some confusion, especially with a torrent of advice pouring in from several sources. Resist acting on emotion and wait for the facts to emerge.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) That goal you've set is still in sight and is still in reach. Stay with the course that you're on. Making too many shifts in direction now could create another set of problems.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) It might be time to confront a trouble-making associate and demand some answers. But be prepared for some surprises that could lead you to make a change in some long-standing plans.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Congratulations. You're making great progress in sorting out all that confusion that kept you from making those important decisions. You're on your way now.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A difficult experience begins to ease. That's the good news. The not-so-good news is a possible complication that could prolong the problem awhile longer.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your self-confidence gets a much-needed big boost as you start to unsnarl that knotty financial problem. Expect some help from a surprising source.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Congratulations. Any lingering negative aftereffects from that not-so-pleasant workplace situation are all but gone. It's time now to focus on the positive.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Your self-confidence grows stronger as you continue to take more control of your life. Arrange for some well-earned fun and relaxation with someone special.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) As usual, you've been concerned more about the needs of others than your own. You need to take time for yourself so that you can replenish all that spent energy.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Stronger planetary influences indicate a growing presence of people eager to help you navigate through the rough seas that might mark your career course.

BORN THIS WEEK: You can balance emotion and logic, which gives you the ability to make choices that are more likely than not to prove successful.

I found the Aardvark!

Each week we will give away an Aardvark Gift and each month we give away a special Aardvark Gift Basket to one lucky person. All you have to do to enter is find the Aardvark! The little guy you are looking for looks exactly like the one pictured above (but don't put down this page as your answer, there's another one hidden somewhere in this issue).

The winner will be selected from all the correct answers picked by the deadline and the prize will have to be picked up at our office. Only one entry per household per issue please.

To enter, simply find the aardvark in this issue, then go to our web page and select the link "I Found the Aardvark" entry page. If you would like to enter by mail, send your name, address and phone number along with the issue date and page number you found him in to: Wanderer - I Found the Aardvark, P.O. Box 102, Mattapoissett, MA 02739.

Deadline for each week is 5pm on the Wednesday after the date of publication. All entries must be dated or postmarked on or before that Wednesday.
